1970 HI-LIFE
Greenville Senior High School

Foreword

What you hold here are the words, sights, and impressions of a year . . . a year characterized by both good times and bad. Every moment of life at GHS provoked a different flow of emotion from the students. Because of the various feelings running through the school, and the evidence of them on students' faces, we have chosen Moods as the theme of the 1970 Hi-Life. It is the hope of the staff that this book portrays Greenville Senior High as the students see it.

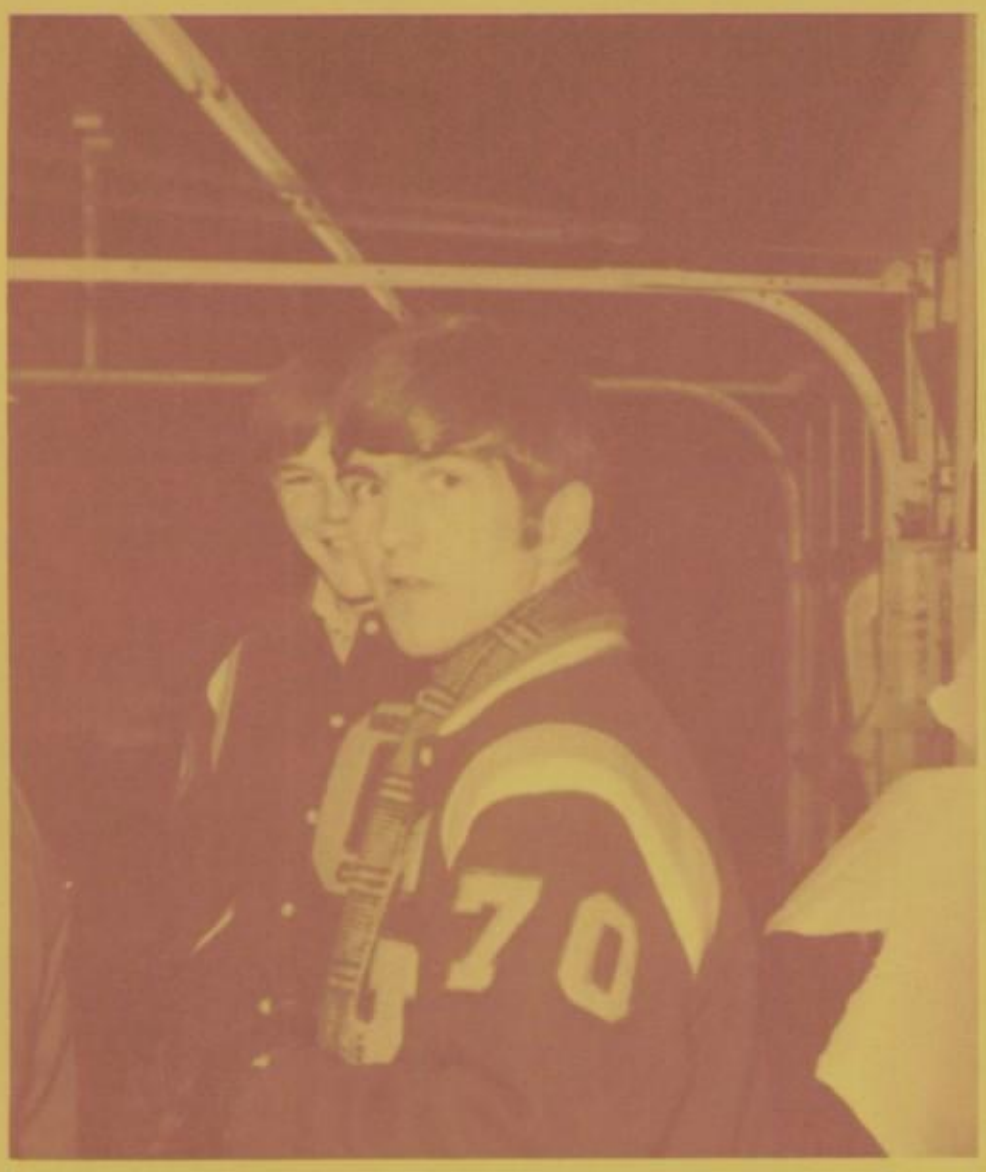
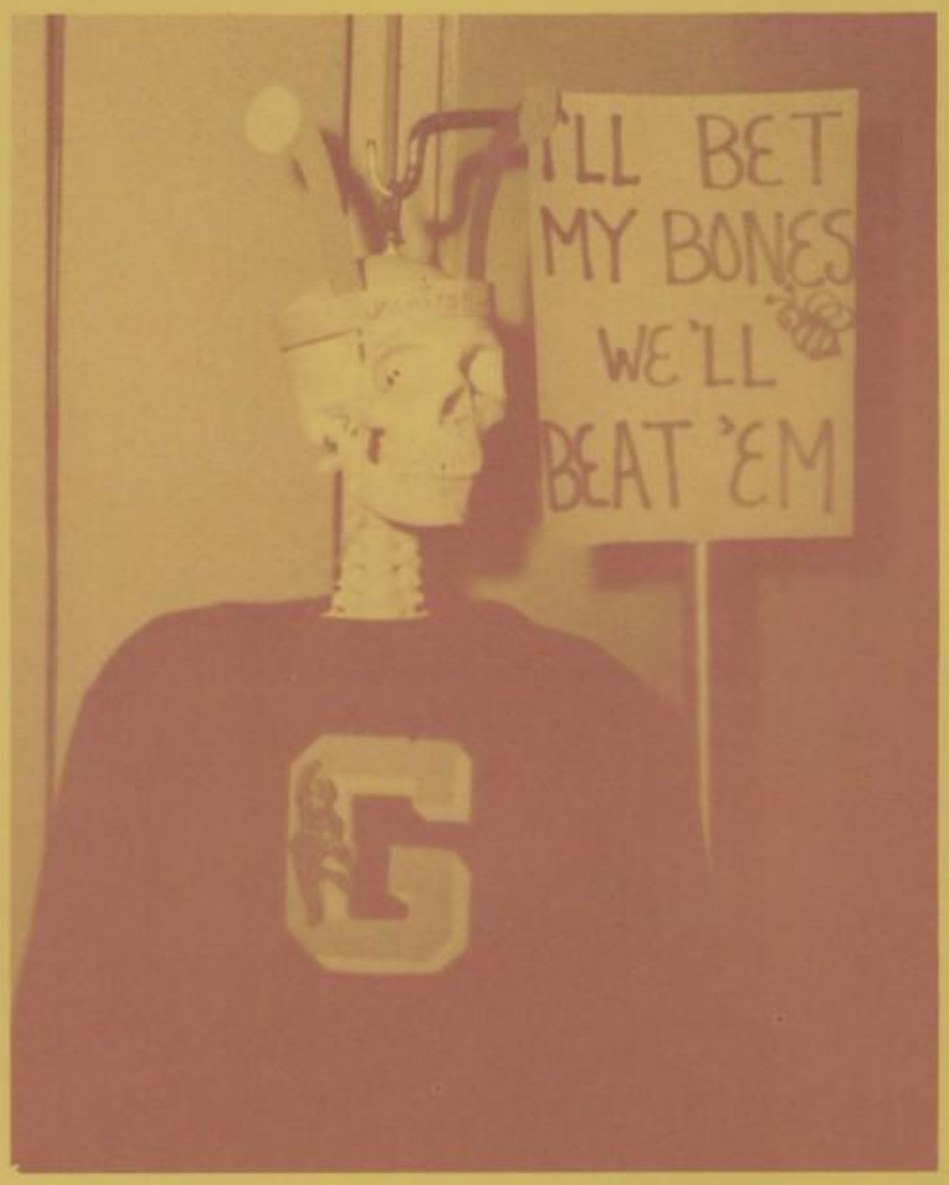
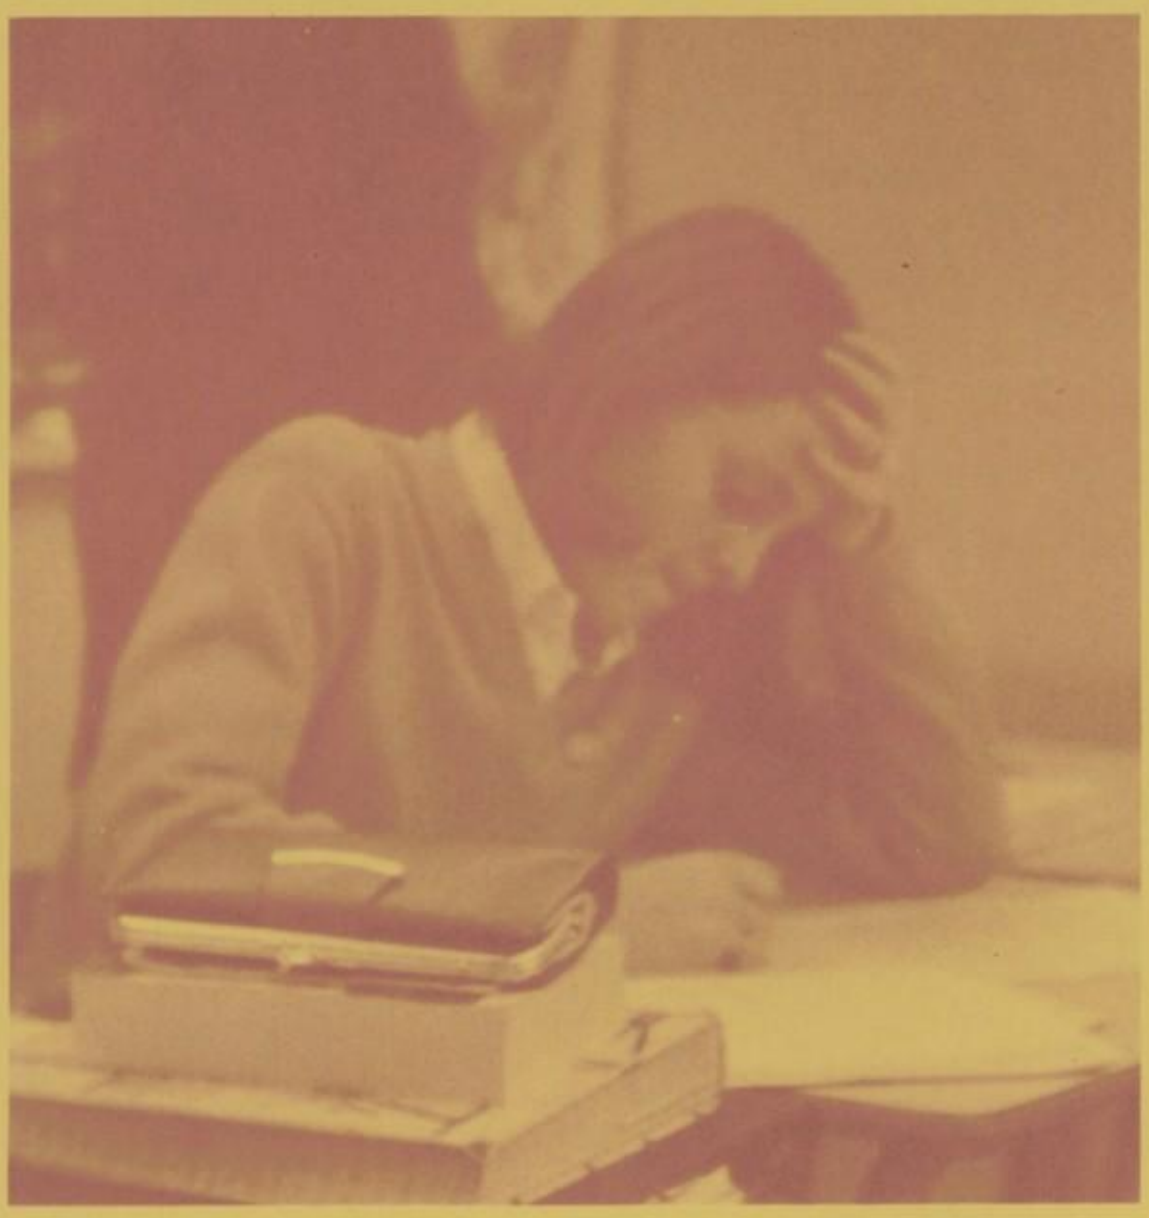
A school is made of people . . . people working, people talking, people playing. But always, they are doing something, and doing it with some kind of an expression on their faces, showing their moods.

Look around; watch the people. See the smiles, the frowns, the puzzled looks of those caught by surprise. You can see for yourself that GHS has many different moods.







What could be more natural in a school than students studying? There's homework to do, books to read, and papers to write. Teachers, too, have work to do in preparing tests and planning lessons. All around during a typical day you can see people working hard (and sometimes not so hard).

At times the work can get you down. Depression sets in and you have to get away . . . to be alone . . . to contemplate . . . to think.

And then . . . boredom. The hours just seem to drag on forever. The clock on the wall has come to a dead standstill. Oh, when will it all end?

But always, there is a time for laughter . . . a time to smile and be happy. A joke, a kind word, a beautiful day . . . how easily they can make you glow with a feeling of joy.

And in the end, there is still happiness. There always will be. No matter how bad things may be, they will get better soon enough. So smile.

DEDICATION 1970

Because of his service to GHS and its students as team physician and head of the school board, plus his willingness to help the citizens of Greenville, we dedicate the 1970 Hi-Life to Dr. Robert E. Rice.

Before settling down in Greenville to live and practice medicine, Dr. Rice did much traveling. He was born in Celina, Ohio, and attended high school in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan. He received his college education at what is now Central Michigan University and the University of Michigan. After getting married, he joined the navy and traveled to California, the South Pacific, and the North Pole. Between these excursions Dr. Rice moved to Greenville and here raised his three children, Robert, Jr., Judy, and Roxanne.

To you, Dr. Rice, we dedicate . . .

SENIORITY 1970

As the last days of our years at Greenville High come to an end we can see more and more the many moods of G.H.S. portrayed in the faces of our classmates, the members of the Class of "70" . . . as Freshmen, fear and excitement showed in our faces . . . as Sophomores and Juniors we felt discouragement and frustration, but also happiness and anticipation of our Senior year.

As Mighty Seniors we felt some regret that our days at G.H.S. were coming to an end . . . confusion in deciding just what we were to do with our lives after high school . . . sadness at the thought that we might not see many of the members of the Class of "70" again . . . excitement that we were soon to be on our own to prove or disprove ourselves to the world.

We faced one more long year of school . . . climaxed by our long awaited Graduation . . .

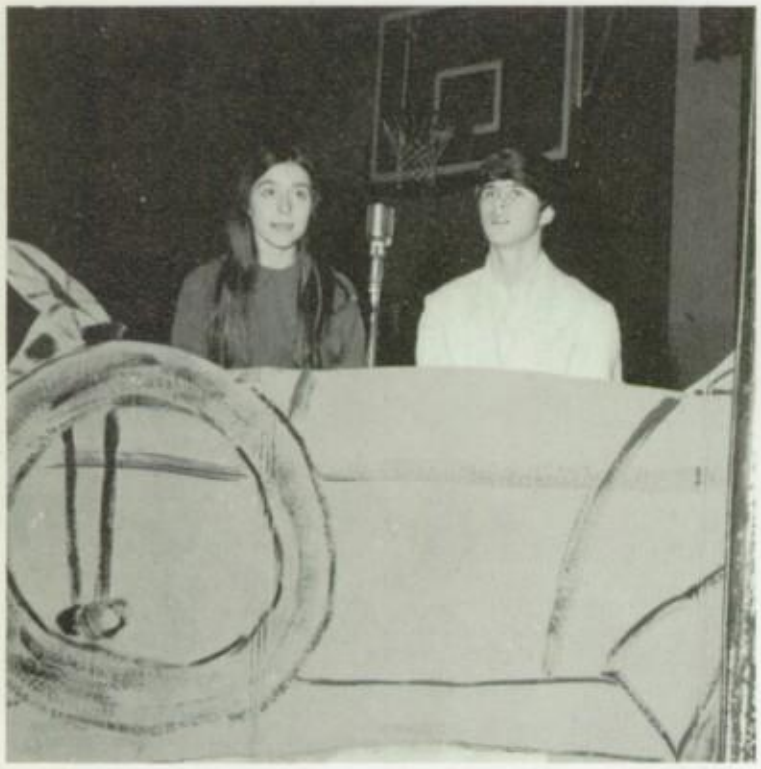
A Cappella Choir takes you on . . .

A Musical Tour

This year's Variety Show was a tremendous success as the A Cappella Choir took their audience on "A Musical Tour of America".

The show, directed by Mr. Richard Hazzard, featured such talent as dancing, ensembles, duets, and solos as the choir performed songs from cities around the country.



Debi Tupper and Mike Whitten guide the musical tour.

Nancy Wheeler, portraying Tricia Nixon, sings, "The Secret Service Makes Me Nervous".

of America

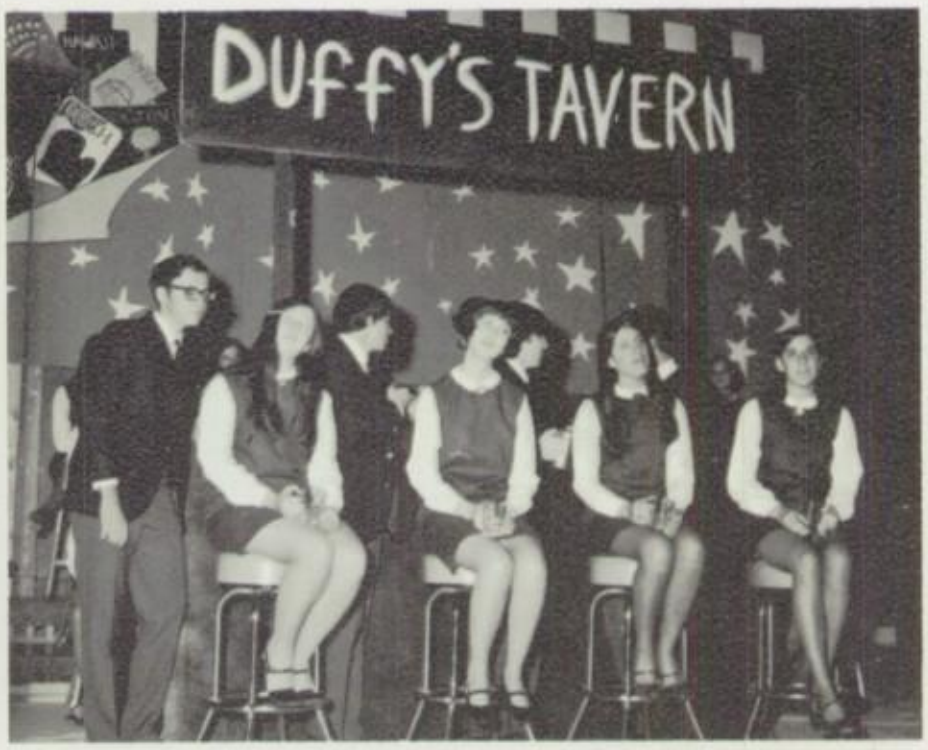
Larry Staffen and Bob Kurnat were "Homeward Bound" as the show came to an end.

Donna Koehn, Marsha Wildner, and Julie Larsen stop at the races to sing, "Fugue for a Tin Horn".



The Village Green Singers take a break and harmonize, "There is a Tavern in the Town".

BOYS' STATE

GIRLS' STATE

Boys' State and Girls' State are annual programs sponsored by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary. The purpose of the programs is to develop and train boys and girls who possess qualities of leadership. The experience of setting up and governing their own "state" teaches them the principles of the democratic society and motivates the young people to be better citizens of tomorrow. Boys' State was held at Michigan State University and Girls' State was held at the University of Michigan.

SYMPOSIUM

The Symposium was a first at G.H.S. this year, but even though only an experiment it was termed as a great success. The Symposium was held in the Gymnasium and only Seniors were allowed to attend.

The purpose of the Symposium was to discuss, on a group basis, some problems that face young adults today. The program was presented by John Williams, associate director of the Y.M.C.A. in Ann Arbor and part time student at the University of Michigan. The program, Some Dimensions of Morality, was comprised of movies, experiments, and individual group discussions.

THE WEED GARDEN

The Weed Garden, Mr. Pawlowski's acting class, presented three one-act plays entitled "Was it Heaven, or Hell?", "The Lost Brooch", and "The Love Philtre of Ikey Shoenstein".

"Was it Heaven, or Hell?"

"Was it Heaven, or Hell?" is the story of the conflict of two old women and their religious faith against lying.

Sherry Walthius, Shelley Rader, and Becky Horton discuss the condition of a bedridden Denise Holbrook with Larry Lucier.

Don't you know that it's wrong to tell a lie?

"The Lost Brooch"

"The Lost Brooch" is a satire on Russian life about a dilemma within a family when the governess is accused of stealing a brooch.

Lorie Wager, Terese Dascola, and Jack Fredrick argue over the lost brooch.

Dan Galentine and Terese Dascola talk of running away.

"The Love Philtre of Ikey Shoenstein"

Steve VanHoose is brought down after a few yards gain

Gary Foster avoids a Belding tackle.

Taking second place in the Tri-River Conference standings, the 1969 Yellow Jackets ended a fine season with a record of 7 wins and 2 losses. This is the best mark of any Greenville team since 1948!

Greenville started the season with a 25-22 win over Lakeview and went on to defeat Coopersville and Lowell. After a couple of hard fought losses to Rockford and Sparta, the Jackets came back to win the remainder of their games.

Terry Faber and Steve VanHoose were chosen as co-captains of the 1969 squad and both were named to the All-Conference team along with Gary Foster, Paul Jorgensen, Gab Barnwell, and Dave Peer.

The fine coaching of Ed Heiby, Al Lutkus, Lynn Kindell, and Joe Muns, plus a total team effort, made this season what it was—a fabulous one.

J.V. FOOTBALL

The 1969 Junior Varsity squad, under the leadership of coaches Chuck Twork and Joe Hattenbach, had a fine season this year.

Bouncing from wins to losses, the junior Jackets came up with a 4-4 season record. The J.V.'s showed great team work and will make a fine Varsity squad for the 1970 season.

The Harriers this year compiled a very fine record. In Dual meets they won 7 and lost 3. During the Alma Invitational, 6 wins and 3 losses were recorded, and in Conference action, 3 wins and 4 losses. This year's team finished 5th in the conference standings.

The Harriers were victims of injuries. Mike Whitten, the number one runner, pulled a muscle during the first meet and was out for the rest of the season; and Steve Bullard, number two runner, was out the last quarter of the season with a back injury. This left the season with a grim outlook, but there were men willing to work and pay the price.

Joe Senko, team captain and most valuable runner, was a very fine runner in tough spots. Dave Teman, a freshman, ran number three and did a great job. He's the second freshman to ever win a Varsity letter in Cross Country. Other awards went to Bob Vaughan, a sophomore, who received the Most Improved Award, and to Steve Bullard, also a sophomore, who received the Most Outstanding Participant Award.

Others who helped tremendously were Tom Aylsworth, Gary Rowland, Mark Diehl, Fred Leitz, Rob Tupper, Dale Willer, Tom Whitten, Steve Kinyon, Lon Winger, Rick Green, Scott Schuppert, Jim Holland, and Phil Barker.

All will be returning next year except Mike Whitten and Joe Senko. With all the experience acquired this year, we can look forward to a great season next year.

The Jackets had a great season this year with a 17-2 overall record winning 14 straight games. Under the adept coaching of Larry Taylor, the Jackets

Dennis Griffith goes up against Cedar.

The Jackets after the record 101 point victory over Comstock Park finished co-champs of the Tri-River league. They were also rated 8th in the final Detroit Free Press Class B poll. Enthusiasm of the student body was at a high level throughout the entire season, backing the Jackets every step of the way. Greenville was anxiously looking forward to tournaments. The Jackets won their first two games beating Sparta 59-57 and Belding 76-58; then dropped the district final to Cedar Springs 86-77. This year five seniors will be leaving the squad: Steve VanHoose, Joe Senko, Gary Foster, Ed Sutphen, and Howard Bedore. Many experienced ball players will be returning next year so the Jackets should have another fine season.

Senko, Jorgensen, VanHoose, and Griffith await Bedore's tip.

The junior cagers exhibited their athletic skills and coordination, displayed the courage to keep trying, to show team work, and to maintain a high level of sportsmanship throughout the 1969-70 basketball season. These valuable traits earned the Junior Varsity Team the respect of the student body and made the school proud that they belong to GHS.

In referring to his team, Coach Kent Ingles said, "The Junior Varsity boys show a great deal of potential for the future. I expect to see them use this year's experience when they join the Varsity squad next year."

FROSH BASKETBALL

The class of "73" has another team to be proud of in their 1969-70 basketball squad. The boys ended up in first place in the Tri-River action this year. The ninth graders had a powerful first five, and were backed by a very strong bench to pick up any slack. This was a determining factor in the team's success. With the Junior Varsity season ahead of them next year, and with just a little more growing to do, they can look forward to a very successful Varsity career as juniors and seniors at GHS.

This year's Varsity wrestling squad finished 5th in the conference with a 2-4 conference record and a 4-8 dual match record.

Under the capable direction of head coach Frank Stankey and assistant coach Duane Chambers, the team tried hard and fought right to the final horn, even if they couldn't possibly win the match.

Next year's squad will be greatly hampered by the loss of seniors Earl Hawley, Don Korson and Randy Lincoln. Korson broke two records: season wins with 33 and career wins with 81; and tied two records: near falls with 13 and undefeated in dual matches, 12-0.

The fine performances of a number of underclassmen promise a fine season next year.

Earl Hawley, 16-9 record, lead the squad in reversals and placed 3rd in Conference action.

GIRLS' GYMNASTIC MEET

The Girl's Gymnastic Meet gained much recognition after its 1970 presentation. The competition was tremendous and the excitement ran high. The various areas for which girls could compete in were parallel bars, the trampoline, free exercise, the horse, and the balance beam. They were judged according to 1) performance of routine and 2) difficulty of skills. Both were rated on a 10-point scale. The show was put together through much hard work on the part of the girls and their advisor, Miss Judy Hamilton. It was quite an impressive presentation.

STUDENTS GONE FOR THE YEAR . .

TO CHILE

Mary Louise Allen Hansen Zuniga Varela Aravena Marti Silva, this is Mary Allens name as she has been adopted by three families in Chile.

Mary first attended a Spanish language school for one month then she went to a public school for girls. Later, while staying with another family, she attended a Catholic girls school. Here she wears a uniform which she likes because she doesn't have to decide what to wear each day.

Mary likes Chile very much, especially the mountains. She enjoys the food and loves the people in Chile. Mary spent a very happy year in Chile.

TO BOLIVIA

Kathy Hall stayed this last year in Santa Curz, Bolivia. She stayed with the Orlando Lazada family where she had seven brothers and sisters, aged 3 to 21.

The main language in Bolivia is Spanish, which Kathy took in school. She attended a private girls school six days a week. One of Kathy's favorite foods was fried bananas. Kathy really enjoyed her visit to Bolivia and hopes to return some day.

WALTER JAEHNIG
25 YEARS
Reporting G.H.S. Sports

THE DAILY NEWS
Serving Greenville-Belding-Montcalm County

MY SUMMER VACATION (or MY DOG)

Many years ago my sister and I lived down the street from a pig—a real barnyard pig. He was around forty-seven years old, rather wrinkled, read the Wall Street Journal, and loved scrambled eggs au gratin. Actually eating was his favorite hobby. Most evenings you could find him leaning back in his red suede chair with the Journal, listening to Walter Cronkite and feeding his snouted face. About the only type of food he didn't like was jellied cat fish with bananas and whipped cream—but my sister like it—so he gave it to her. Oh yes—his name was Percival Ignatious Grunt, III.

One day as he was strolling down to the newsstand to pick up his copy of Play Pig (he had rotten taste in women), a little old lady ran over him. Let me tell you, she was not driving a car—she was running down the street in her cleated sneakers—and ran right up his back and kept going.

We rushed him to the hospital where his favorite nurse, Milly Prunewhip, tucked him into bed and handed him a dish of bananas marinated in pickle juice and honey. That did it. After that he felt so good he kissed the nurse good bye and walked out of the hospital to the football game. His mother was the ball. (To be continued.)

Afterword

Consummatem est—it is finished . . . another year, another Hi-Life. As the seniors depart and the undergrads move one step higher in their education, there is a mixture of both happiness and sadness in the air. Graduation has come at last, but now many friends will be left behind; athletics have ended, but memories will still recall thrilling victories and crushing defeats. And though this is the end, there is still a new beginning, an opportunity to be greeted with a smile.
